Marriage Minute

One of the gifts given by the Holy Spirit at Pentecost was the grace for the Apostles to speak in different languages so that the Gospel of God's love could be heard by all people. This act was truly a miracle! We married couples can receive a similar grace to communicate love more effectively. One of the very practical ways we can enhance our married relationship is to learn to express our love for our spouse in their preferred "love language." According to Gary Chapman, author of "The Five Love Languages," spouses will increase their level of happiness within their marriage by learning to communicate more effectively through Gifts, Quality Time, Acts of Service, Words of Affirmation, or Physical Touch depending on the preferred "love language." What is your spouse's love language? This and other topics will be explored at the Everyday In Love Date Night Workshops this June. Register at www.archkck.org/everyday or see other offerings at www.JoyfulMarriageproject.com.

"Friends, the Holy Spirit desires a relationship with us that will take us on the greatest adventure imaginable; a journey to the very Heart of God. The Holy Spirit desires to be present to us in a manner that brings light out of darkness, freedom out of bondage, order out of chaos and life out of death. Such is the power of the Wild Goose." - Fr. Dave Pivonka, host of The Wild Goose

Prayers to the Holy Spirit

Holy Spirit of light and love, you are the substantial love of the Father and the Son; hear my prayer. Bounteous bestower of most precious gifts, grant me a strong and living faith which makes me accept all revealed truths and shape my conduct in accord with them. Give me a most confident hope in all divine promises which prompts me to abandon myself unreservedly to you and your guidance. Infuse into me a love of perfect goodwill, and act according to God's least desires. Make me love not only my friends but my enemies as well, in imitation of Jesus Christ who through you offered himself on the Cross for all people. Holy Spirit, animate, inspire, and guide me, and help me to be always a true follower of you. Amen.
