Marriage Minute “Complete my joy by being of the same mind, with the same love, united in heart, thinking one thing.” This sounds great until your spouse attempts to load the dishwasher and does it wrong, or dresses your toddler in clashing patterns for Mass! Fortunately, we don’t have to have the same approach to things in order to live this out. We can be “of the same mind” by developing a couple value. To do this: • Understand the value behind your spouse’s behavior • Make that value important to you, since it’s important to him/her • Ask yourself, “What course of action will bring us closer as a couple?” The skill is taught in detail in the Living in Love suite of programs. “Do nothing out of selfishness; rather, humbly regard others as more important than yourselves...”
- PHILIPPIANS 2:3 Pride and ego are hard things to control. We see how others act or dress and think we are superior to them. We idolize our own self- image. But, if we truly believe everything is a gift from God, we recognize all the people that God has put in our lives as gifts! We are grateful for how they enrich our lives. Pray every day for the people in your life.
