"...I am a minister in accordance with God's stewardship given to me to bring to completion for you the word of God." (Colossians 1:25)

We are all called to evangelize – to continuously grow in our relationship with Jesus and to share it with others. We may not be called to evangelize like St. Paul, but we should look for opportunities to share our faith with those closest to us, like our family, friends and neighbors. Pray for the courage to share your faith the next time the opportunity arises.

MARRIAGE MINUTE Who doesn’t love a good meal shared with friends? In this week’s readings, we see profound moments taking place over such a meal. Hospitality is a simple way that married couples can share the graces of their sacrament with those around them. Here are some ways to make it happen on a regular basis: • Keep it simple! It’s okay to invite friends for a weeknight, crockpot of chili, in a cluttered house. • Be deliberate about scheduling. Decide with your spouse how often you’d like to host others. • Schedule right away: take out calendars, and find a date, even if it’s several weeks out. • Be generous. Outside your immediate friend group are elderly people, single moms, young singles and new families in your parish that would appreciate a meal with you.

Invite them! For other ways to serve as a couple, check out Level 4 at

FORMED PICK

Ignatius of Loyola

A Noble Knight of God

This modern take on the story of Saint Ignatius of Loyola, the founder of the Jesuits, often called “the saint of second chances,” is an incisive and thrilling look at the life of the real man behind the legend.
